

A vibrant purple poster for a book club. At the top center, a large yellow circle contains the text 'CLUBE DO LIVRO' in bold white letters. Below this, the words 'NOME' and 'LIVRO' are printed in white, each followed by a white rounded rectangular input field. The background is decorated with various floating books: an open book with blank pages, a blue book, a book with a pink cover, a red book, and a book with a blue cover. At the bottom, four cartoon children are depicted with joyful expressions and raised arms, reaching towards a red book floating above them. The children include a girl with black hair in a red shirt, a boy with orange hair in a white shirt, a boy with orange hair and glasses in a light blue shirt, and a girl with dark hair in a red shirt and yellow skirt holding a purple cup.
